Commencement Speaker

Marissa McGuire

This year's student commencement speaker found her own community at De Anza through programs like LEAD (Latinx Empowerment at De Anza), Math Performance Success and Guided Pathways.

"Being online for classes kind of pushed me to do more things that I might not have done," said Marissa McGuire, who plunged into college life and found new ways to make friends while earning her associate degree for transfer in Psychology.

McGuire will attend the University of California, Santa Cruz, this fall with help from the Karl S. Pister Leadership Opportunity Award – a major scholarship given each year to a student transferring from De Anza. She wants to attend graduate school and become a psychologist.

A first-generation college student, McGuire lives in a small community outside Silicon Valley. She had few Latinx classmates in high school, so she was excited to discover De Anza's LEAD program, where she forged strong bonds with Latinx students and instructors. Inspired by an "amazing" LEAD student mentor, McGuire became a mentor herself – helping other students stay connected and engaged in their classes.

McGuire also found support in Math Performance Success, where instructors and counselors helped her become more comfortable with a subject that had been difficult for her.

During her second year, McGuire joined the Guided Pathways initiative, serving as a student adviser to the interdisciplinary groups developing new Villages for students with related majors, and addressing obstacles that make it harder for students to reach their goals.

McGuire came to De Anza because her older sister attended a few years ago, after researching colleges and deciding it was the best place to prepare for transferring to a university.

"Community college is a great place to figure out what you want to do," McGuire said. "De Anza has so many resources, so many programs and so many people you can reach out to for help."

President's Awards

The $3,500 President's Award is presented annually to graduating students who have overcome adversity and shown perseverance in seeking an education at De Anza.

David Lechuga

David Lechuga has been running his own business for years – cutting hair for his friends and neighbors, and using the proceeds to help support his family. Now the 20-year-old is ready to take his skills to the next level.

Lechuga, a recipient of the President's Award for 2022, is graduating with an associate degree for transfer in business administration and plans to major in the same subject at San José State.

"I really liked marketing myself and managing my own business while being in school," he said, "but I want to work at a bigger company" where there are more opportunities.

Lechuga grew up in East San Jose and came to De Anza after taking college classes at two other community colleges, while still attending high school at Latino College Preparatory Academy. As a first-generation college student, he didn't find much support at the other colleges, he said, but had a much better experience with counselors and instructors in the First Year Experience program at De Anza.

Even when classes were fully online because of COVID-19, Lechuga said the FYE program "really helped me connect with other people and find my way."

Lechuga's earnings as a barber helped pay the family's bills, after his father became ill and was hospitalized with the coronavirus. Despite the pressure, Lechuga said he was determined to earn his degree and honor his parents, who emigrated from Mexico so he and his sister could have a better life.

His determination impressed his instructors. "He's a hard worker and he's very focused," said Kristin Skager, acting dean of Language Arts, who said Lechuga was a positive influence when she taught him in English.

Many of his hair-cutting clients are high school students, Lechuga said. "I tell them to come to De Anza."

Rose Lu

Going to college was no simple task for Rose Lu: While taking classes over the last two years, she ran an online business and held a series of part-time jobs – including a weekend gig as face-painter and balloon-animal maker at childrens' parties.

Lu, a recipient of the President's Award for 2022, is graduating with an associate degree for transfer in business administration and will attend the University of California, Berkeley, this fall. She plans to continue studying business there.

A first-generation college student, Lu said the COVID-19 pandemic and the closure of her parents' restaurant left her with a pressing need to help support her family while going to school.

While working part-time in retail and other jobs, Lu researched online businesses and decided to start selling digital merchandise for online games. The income was enough to help her family pay off bills.

The demands of working and helping her family were stressful, Lu said, but the experience gave her confidence in her abilities.

Like many in the class of 2022, Lu came to De Anza when the college was operating primarily online because of the pandemic. Online classes gave her more flexibility to work, she said, "but it's really hard to get to know people."

Fortunately, she said, joining the IMPACT AAPI Learning Community gave her an opportunity to connect with other students and faculty members. For a time, she worked as an administrative assistant for program counselor Amy Wang, helping to organize events and activities. Wang said Lu was dedicated to supporting her fellow students.

"Rose is one of the kindest, most compassionate students I have had the pleasure of working with," Wang added.

DeHart Scholarship

The $2,000 A. Robert DeHart and Rena Frabony DeHart Memorial Scholarship honors De Anza's founding president and is awarded for service to the college community.

Aminata Kofuma-Henry

The idea for a clothing drive came to Aminata Kofuma-Henry as she was thinking about ways to engage and motivate members of the Black Student Union at De Anza.

Within a few weeks last fall, Kofuma-Henry and fellow BSU members had raised more than $2,000 to buy jackets, hats, toiletries and other items, which they distributed with the help of the Black Outreach community organization. As BSU president, Kofuma-Henry even made a pitch for support during a collegewide Zoom session.

"It was hard work, but it was a good learning experience," she said of the project.

Kofuma-Henry, this year's recipient of the DeHart Scholarship, enjoys helping others. She's worked as a counselor for YMCA youth programs, and will earn an associate degree for transfer in Psychology this summer. She plans to study psychology and child development at Sacramento State this fall.

Her goal is to become a therapist and, in particular, provide children and young adults with opportunities to seek help from someone who looks like them and understands some of the issues they face. "Mental health can be a taboo topic in the Black community," she said. "I want to get rid of that stigma."

Kofuma-Henry, 20, said she found direction at De Anza by joining the Umoja Learning Community and then the Black Student Union. She credits counselors Maurice Canyon and Glynn Wallis, co-advisers to the BSU, with keeping her on track toward her goals.

"She has great leadership skills," Canyon said. "She really jumped in there and helped keep the BSU going, even through adversity" during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Attending college online during the pandemic posed many challenges, Kofuma-Henry acknowledged. Her advice to other students? "Don't give up. There are so many people at De Anza who are willing to help you, so don't be afraid to ask."

Student Leadership Awards

The Student Leadership Award is a project of the De Anza Student Government and the Vasconcellos Institute for Democracy in Action (VIDA). These graduating or transferring students have demonstrated extraordinary leadership in the last year.

De Anza College Overview

De Anza College offers a broad range of academic and career programs, cultural activities, sports and social events to about 18,000 students each quarter. Students can choose from 77 associate degrees, 103 certificate programs and more than 1,800 courses. More than 50,000 friends and neighbors participate in De Anza's Community Education programs each year, including the Child Development Center, De Anza College Planetarium, Euphrat Museum of Art, noncredit Short Courses and the De Anza College Academy for youth.

Students attending De Anza enjoy the whole college experience. They can join a club or start a new one; walk through time at the California History Center; visit the stars at the Planetarium; explore the diversified ecosystems of the Cheeseman Environmental Study Area; or participate on or root for a sports team – there are 17 to choose from. An education at De Anza isn't just about books and tests; students also discover a diversity of people representing cultures from around the world and learn how to become fully engaged, politically aware citizens. The college's Vasconcellos Institute for Democracy in Action helps to advance this goal. Learning at De Anza College takes place in state-of-the-art facilities, many funded through voter-approved construction bonds. The college is committed to environmental sustainability in building design and operations.

De Anza consistently ranks at or near the top among California community colleges in the number of transfers to CSU and UC. De Anza's top transfer institutions include UC Berkeley, UC Santa Cruz, UC Davis and UC San Diego as well as San José State University and San Francisco State University.

Mission Statement

De Anza College provides an academically rich, multicultural learning environment that challenges students of every background to develop their intellect, character and abilities; to realize their goals; and to be socially responsible leaders in their communities, the nation and the world.

De Anza College fulfills its mission by engaging students in creative work that demonstrates the knowledge, skills and attitudes contained within the college's Institutional Core Competencies:

- Communication and expression
- Information literacy
- Physical/mental wellness and personal responsibility
- Civic capacity for global, cultural, social and environmental justice
- Critical thinking
